Neticia D. Waldron

THE W.H.O.L.E. WOMAN

Prophetess

Neticia D. Waldron

Prophetess Neticia D. Waldron is a dynamic force, embodying the roles of wife, mother, and esteemed healthcare administrator with over 20 years of dedicated service in the industry. Holding a Bachelor of Science in Healthcare Administration and currently pursuing a Master of Science in Business and Ministry, she brings both academic depth and lived experience to every arena she steps into.

As a published author, Prophetess Waldron shares her profound insights in her acclaimed work, Worship and Warfare, offering spiritual guidance and empowering readers to navigate life's battles with prayer and resilience.

Prophetess Waldron is the Founder of Whole Woman Fitness & Recovery Spa, where she fervently advocates for physical, emotional, spiritual, mental, and financial well-being as essential components of a balanced and purposeful life. Her signature W.H.O.L.E. Framework™ (Worship & Warfare, Health & Healing, Order & Ownership, Learning & Lifestyle, and Expansion & Evolution) serves as the foundation of her transformational coaching programs, including the flagship 90 Day WHOLE WOMAN: Detoxing From Life program, guiding women through a holistic journey of healing and wholeness in every dimension of their lives.

Her commitment to community wellness is further demonstrated through her Whole Pathways to Wellness initiative, a partnership with the City of Evanston designed to close critical gaps in health equity, life expectancy, and access to care in marginalized communities.

Deeply rooted in her faith, Prophetess Waldron served for 15 years as an Associate Minister at the First Church of God CLC in Evanston, Illinois, and is currently an Ordination Candidate within the Church of God (Anderson, Indiana) denomination, pursuing eligibility for senior pastoral leadership. Her ministry reflects her unwavering dedication to uplifting others and preaching the transformative power of God's Word through messages of hope, love, and spiritual authority.

Prophetess Neticia D. Waldron's life is a testament to the boundless possibilities that arise when passion, purpose, and faith converge. Through her roles as author, coach, administrator, minister, and community advocate, she continues to inspire and empower women to live life abundantly, walk in wholeness, and fulfill their God-given potential.
